

Chautauqua Lecture Series
2008-2009 Season

"Mercury Pollution in our Environment: Current Health Hazards and our Clean Energy Future "

Dr. Heileen Hsu-Kim, Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering

Giles (3/26/09)

"Democracy is Overrated"

Dr. Michael Munger, Professor and Chair of Political Science

Randolph (2/12/09)

"Wild Artists, Radical Events: Writing about Experimental Art, Trauma, and Artist's Writings"

Dr. Kristine Stiles, Professor of Art, Art History, and Visual Studies

Pegram (1/22/09)

"Clones, Chimeras, and Other Creatures of the Biotech Revolution"

Dr. Priscilla Wald, Professor of English and Women's Studies

Bassett (11/05/08)

"Ancient and Modern Perceptions of Our Natural World"

Dr. Susan Lozier, Professor of Physical Oceanography

Aycock (10/29/08)

"Why, How, and Whence the Surge in Iraq"

Dr. Peter Feaver, Alexander F. Heymeyer Professor of Political Science

Gilbert-Addoms (10/21/08)

"Tales from Our Genome"

Dr. Hunt Willard, Professor of Genome Sciences and Policy

Brown (9/23/08)

"The Libyan Sybils: From Sojourner Truth to Michele Obama"

Dr. Richard Powell, John Spencer Bassett Professor of Art

Southgate (9/16/08)