

Chautauqua Lecture Series

2011-2012 Season

East Campus

"Meanderings on Evolution and the Origin of Species"

Dr. Mohamed Noor, Professor of Biology

Brown (9/15/11)

"Secrets of Primate Societies: Behavior, Genetics and Endocrinology Studies"

Dr. Susan Alberts, Professor of Biology

Giles (9/19/11)

"Ultrasonic Imaging: Making Pictures with Sound"

Dr. Kathryn Nightingale, Professor of Biomedical Engineering

Southgate (9/27/11)

"Can You Hear Me Now?: Cell Phones, the Spectrum and the Internet"

Dr. Michelle Connolly, Professor of Economics

Aycock (10/4/11)

"Democracy is Overrated"

Dr. Michael Munger, Professor of Political Science

Blackwell (10/19/11)

"I Am the Other: The Making of an Anthropologist"

Dr. J. Lorand Matory, Professor of African and African American Studies

Pegram (11/7/11)

"Prophets in America"

Dr. Richard Brodhead

Randolph (11/16/11)

West Campus

"A Man Without a Country: Cosmopolitan Black Masculinities in The Wire"

Dr. Mark Anthony Neal, Professor of African and African American Studies 9/26/11

"Loss Aversion and the Things It Brings"

Dr. Dan Ariely, Professor of Behavioral Economics 10/18/11

"When Discovery is Personal – Science Motivated by Disease"

Dr. Nancy Andrews 11/15/11